WOMAN JAILER
IN CHARGE IN TEXAS TOWN

(By Associated Press)
 SAN ANGELO, Tex., Dec. 5.—Kindness toward prisoners is shown by Mrs. Pat Conway, jailer of the Tom Green county jail in San Angelo, but Mrs. ROSEN—FREL. ConwayMM. Mrs. Conway uses force, if necessary, to control her charges. She is the only woman jailer in Texas, so far as known, and one of the few, if not the only woman jailer in the country.
 For more than twelve years, Mrs. Conway has had charge of all kind of criminals, including the real "bad men" of the west, cattle rustlers, house breakers, vagrants and petty thieves.

Care is given by Mrs. Conway to her charges and in case one becomes ill, she feeds the prisoner with specially prepared food from her own table. So far as possible, she tries to make her charges forget they are in prison and to make the surroundings as comfortable as possible.
 On one occasion, Mrs. Conway was tipped off that a big negro prisoner and others had planned to overpower her and make their escape at midnight. Calmly she began her duties of giving them supper. The negroes set toward the door of the cage and ignored a command to move back into his cell. Mrs. Conway had the bunch of big keys in her hand and with one blow rendered the prisoners unconscious and forced the others back into their cells.
 Mrs. Conway has been a resident of San Angelo since the days of old Fort Concho. Her husband, Pat Conway, janitor at the Tom Green county court house, was a soldier at Fort Concho when it was a frontier post.

NAVY TO HAVE TRANSPORTS
OF ITS OWN

(By Associated Press)
 SAN PEDRO, Calif., Dec. 5.—The United States steamships Chaumont and Argonne, former army transports recently taken over by the navy for navy transportation service, will make trips to the Pacific coast early in 1922, under a schedule recently announced aboard the flagship New Mexico, of the Pacific Fleet.

The Argonne was scheduled to sail from Philadelphia November 23, carrying a committee of the United States Senate to Port au Prince, Cap-Haitien, St. Thomas and Santa Domingo City, returning from these Caribbean ports to Philadelphia about December 23. She was then to sail on January 3 to Hampton Roads, Va., thence to San Francisco via West India and Panama Canal ports, for San Diego and San Pedro. After reaching San Francisco she will make a trip to Manila via Honolulu and Guam, returning to San Francisco by the same ports.

 The Chaumont will leave Hampton Roads December 16, for the same ports, and is due to reach San Francisco January 17, 1922, en route to Manila. The vessels will carry passengers and cargo.

Burglars Don't Seek the Light!

Darkness is their stock in trade. They work by stealth—unheard and unseen—their movements cloaked in secrecy. It's honest folks that see the light. They are the only ones who can risk it.

It's the same way in business. The merchant who is not sure of his goods does not dare to advertise. Advertising would hasten the end of his business career—put him to a test he could not meet.

The merchant who advertises deliberately invites your inspection. He tells you about his product and then lets it stand on its own merits. You can depend on him. He knows his product is good.

That's one reason why it pays you to read the advertisements in THE BONANZA. It is through advertising that you are able to keep in touch with the good things that progressive business houses are spending their money to introduce and keep before you.

Advertisements are interesting, instructive and profitable. They throw a powerful light on the very things that concern you most. READ THEM!
